DAILY PLANETARIUM SHOWS

BEAR TALES | 11 AM | $3

Travel away from city lights to enjoy America's great wilderness and the magnificent evening spring sky. Through stories, "grizzly" puns, and natural history, learn to identify constellations as they slowly drift across the springtime sky.

SPACE SHAPES | 12 PM | FREE

There are many shapes in both the day and night sky. Within this short program aimed at young children, our narrator introduces his audience to the motions and shapes of objects that make up our solar system.

SKY LEGENDS OF THE THREE FIRES | 1 PM | $3

Gather around a flickering campfire with Larry Plamondon, known as Two Hawks, for three stories about the night sky from the Native American people of western and northern Michigan.

SPACEPARK 360 | 2 PM | $3

Travel through an amusement park that spans the solar system. Computer-generated graphics create unique but somewhat familiar rides at each of the planets.

Monday–Saturday 9 a.m.–5 p.m.
Art Hop Fridays 9 a.m.–8 p.m.
Sunday + Holidays 1 p.m.–5 p.m.
Closed: Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve,
Christmas Day, and Easter
